

Anniek Verholt

Bio

Anniek Verholt is a practicing artist based in Brighton. She is a passionate painter of abstract paintings and creates installations and sculptures often in response to psycho-social issues. Anniek has developed her artistic practice over the past 20+ years and is inspired by art therapy theory and practice as well as the language of abstract art. She exhibits her work internationally, facilitates therapeutic arts workshops and sessions in prison and privately and teaches abstract art at the Hampstead School of Art in London.
