ABOUT THE ARTIST

Carrie is a self-taught, full-time artist living in Columbus, Ohio. She makes radiant paintings in oil, acrylic, gouache and watercolor. A Pittsburgh native with a degree in communications from the Indiana University of Pennsylvania, she transitioned to her art career after working at nonprofits serving victims of child abuse. Her original work falls into two categories: joyful paintings inspired by nature and travel (often created en plein air) and portraits of children advocating the need for every child to thrive. She can be found online at www.CarrieLaceyBoerio.com.
