Oxfordshire Artweeks 2023

Welcome to Oxfordshire Artweeks 2023 which begins with a coronation: we're delighted to present a festival fit for a King!

From the traditional to the contemporary and multidisciplinary, across the county there's something to delight, intrigue and inspire everyone. Explore painting, sculpture, ceramics and printmaking; look out for fashion and furniture; discover glass art, mosaics and other marvels; and perhaps choose a treasure or two to take home with you.

Within these pages you will find a variety of types of exhibition, all of which are free to visit – simply drop in during their opening hours. Some artists team up to host group shows while others open their studios (look for the OS throughout this guide). All welcome you both to enjoy the art on show and to chat about their materials, methods and inspiration. At most venues, some of which are extraordinary in themselves, you can meet the artist or maker. If you are keen to see a particular person, please call ahead to confirm they will be there when you visit. In some places there are also demonstrations and you'll also find some excellent cake (look for the D and R respectively throughout this guide).

Thank you for supporting Oxfordshire's artist community.

Artweeks is a not-for-profit organisation and relies upon the generous support of many people to whom we're most grateful as we bring this celebration of the visual arts to you. These include:

Board members: Paul Bullivant, Emmett Casley, Kate Hipkiss, Phillip Jones, Jo Lillywhite, Wendy Newhofer (Chair), Sue Side & Jane Strother.

Volunteer area coordinators: Tony Colbourne, Rod Craig, Emma Davies, Rachel Ducker, Pam Fyvie, Cliff Kinch, Jo Lillywhite, Rahima Kenner, Jaine McCormack, Susan Moxley, Marieke O'Connor, Melissa Orrom-Swan, Tara Parker-Woolway, Graham Perryman, Yvette Phillips, Francesca Shakespeare, Jill Smith, Emma Souter, Maureen Sparling, Jane Tomlinson, Alison Townley & Helen White.

We thank all the other people and organisations who have helped make Artweeks such a success over the years including Janet Brown, Jill Colchester, David Cotterell, Phillip Dove, Josh Golding, Megan Henwood (musician), Caroline Harben, Jill Rayner, Alun Ward, Cornerstone Arts Centre, Direct Publicity, Experience Oxfordshire, Eye Division, OX magazine, Ox in a Box, Oxfordshire Library Service, Payne & Son, The Mill Banbury, The North Wall, The Oxford Times, Wise Investment & former board members. Thank you also to all the Artweeks artists and the thousands of members of the public who make this festival so special.

This year's festival guide cover picture is a pencil drawing by Rachael Anders, a colour pencil artist who specialises in wildlife and birds, pet portraits and floral commissions. A newcomer to Oxfordshire Artweeks, she is welcoming visitors to her home studio in Didcot during the first week of the festival (venue 69).

The Oxford Art Society was founded in 1891 and is an umbrella for accomplished artists with diverse and exciting styles living in Oxfordshire, many of whom also exhibit nationally or internationally. We hold regular exhibitions, and welcome submissions towards membership at our annual Open Exhibition. Look for the initials OAS in this guide to find members' work. For more information visit www.oxfordartsociety.co.uk

The Oxfordshire Craft Guild draws together designer-makers representing a wide range of traditional and contemporary crafts, and holds temporary and permanent exhibitions throughout the county. Membership, which is by selection, is a sign of the finest design ability and highest quality craftsmanship. Look out for the initials OCG in this guide to find Guild Members' work. For further information go to www.ocg.co.uk or www.facebook.com/oxfordshirecraftguild.

West Ox Arts is a lively association of artists and art enthusiasts, many of whom take part in exhibitions alongside artists invited from across the UK. Our Gallery is an inspiring, light-filled venue that sells a wide range of contemporary, high quality art and offers various workshops, demonstrations and special events throughout the year. We are situated in the first floor of Bampton's Town Hall in the Market Square. For more information or to become a member of WOA visit www.westoxarts.com. You can also find us on facebook at www.facebook.com/westoxarts

Oxford Printmakers Co-operative (OPC) has been running for over 40 years and is an open access Fine Art Print workshop offering a high standard of printmaking facilities. It currently has 100 members many of whom are professional artists exhibiting in the UK and abroad. As well as holding regular exhibitions, OPC runs courses in many of the print processes: such as linocut & woodcut, wood engraving, etching, monoprinting, screenprinting, collagraphy and stone lithography. These courses are open to anyone with an interest in printmaking. OPC also offers different membership options for accessing workshop facilities and equipment, and new members are always welcome. Look for the initials OPC in this guide to find members work. For more information go to: www.oxfordprintmakers.co.uk

The Oxford Art Society, Oxfordshire Craft Guild, West Ox Arts and Oxford Printmakers Co-operative are dynamic groups of artists and makers whom we are proud to support. Look out for these initials throughout this festival guide.

Introducing artist Sue Smith

Artist Sue Smith (aka  /Mcshoesue) is the winner of the 2023 Artweeks Mary Moser Award, an annual award established to honour the late Mary Moser’s commitment to Artweeks and to further the career of a professional artist who has taken up art as a second career later in life.

Sue was previously a front-line worker supporting vulnerable adults, the homeless and refugees. She found drawing an escape as she transferred deep-rooted issues around the loss of security onto paper.

Her expansive energetic cityscapes are drawn primarily in pen and ink: hundreds of houses and buildings line imagined streets, often dystopic, and a sense of humanity underpins each. A non-conformist approach to perspective draws in the viewer.

“Our brains don’t think in a linear way, and they process multiple perspectives at one: that’s what I’m trying to encourage,” Sue explains. The undefined edges add a sense of dynamism which hint at a story still unresolved.

While Sue’s drawings are metaphors for insecurity, destruction and vulnerability, her 3D ‘maps’ are neither dark nor melancholic. “I’d like to think my cityscapes offer hope,” she says, “because if there’s a map, then there’s a way out. We can all help someone to find it.”

You can see Sue’s work in St John the Evangelist Cloister Gallery, Iffley Road, Oxford (venue 367) alongside art by other artists and an exhibition of many artist postcards which are being auctioned to raise funds for Sobell House Hospice.
