Profile

Tina Alberni is a Charlotte-based visual artist.

Her bi-cultural heritage and upbringing weave throughout the fabric of her art. She is best known for her large-scale, semi-abstract, vibrant paintings which often become clarion calls for change. Through the vehicle of art, she explores, climate change, endangered animals, human states, and the influence and impact of humans and technology on our planet.

AI, AR and digital collectibles are now included in her art practice.

Over the last 3+ decades, she has been a business and gallery owner, an art educator, arts administrator, and a graphic designer.

She has exhibited in several countries in over 100 solo and group shows.
