

iPad Painting Workshop

with Brian Middleton

Saturday, November 15

10:00 to 4:00

$100.00

Digital painting is a relatively new phenomenon in the contemporary Art world.

Come out and explore this new medium with Visual and iPad Artist Brian Middleton.

Brian refers to his newest body of virtual paintings as "Virtual Impressionism"

(search YouTube videos or his website www.brianmiddletonart.ca for more information).

The illuminated screen of your own iPad will be your new canvas and all your brushes and paints will be virtual for this one-day workshop.

Required: A basic familiarity with iPad technology and you will need to have uploaded the painting and drawing app called "ArtStudio" to your device for this workshop.

(NB: Please purchase the app online and upload it to your device prior to arriving for the workshop.)

Come and create your own virtual masterpiece!
