WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 27 7 PM QUALICUM BEACH CIVIC CENTRE
FROM JAPAN: SAIHOU KOTENGU TAIKO/KAGURA ENSEMBLE
(WITH SPECIAL GUEST TIFFANY TAMARIBUCHI)
Admission: $10

Based in the town of Obama in Nagasaki Prefecture, this remarkable taiko ensemble plays not only pieces from the traditional repertoire but also original compositions by its members. In addition, traditional costumed folk dancing and singing (Sato-kagura) are integral components of performances. Over the course of its 25-year history Saihou Kotengu has performed throughout Japan and Asia (as well as in Hawaii), and three of its members have toured all over the world with the famous taiko group, Ondekoza. Tiffany Tamaribuchi, who is also a former member of Ondekoza, has an international reputation as one of North America's finest taiko performers and instructors.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 30 2:30 PM QB ELEMENTARY SCHOOL GYMNASIUM
TAIKO DRUMMING WORKSHOP ADMISSION: $10

Want to give it a try? Saihou Kotengu (and Tiffany Tamaribuchi) are well-known for their expertise in teaching taiko drumming techniques to people of all ages and nationalities in extremely participatory workshops. Don't miss this fun-filled opportunity for a wonderful afternoon of recreation and intercultural exchange. (Private lessons can also be arranged by calling TOSH at 250-752-6133.)
