Andrea had a weird feeling as she was sitting on the back seat of a Ford Mustang Convertible. She heard them coming but it was too late - the car had been slowed down by the driver to see one of the beautiful ponds.

"Guys --" she said, her scared eyes were fixating her legs. Her four friends turned their heads to look at ~~the~~ ~~the~~ Andrea, a blood freezing shriek was what followed - she had turned into one big single mosquito bite.

Don't drive your convertibles open.

A story

Snook? Seen my share of them in life exploring through the megestic waters like a sailor pegged. I used to have 2 legs and sometimes when I was with my girlfriend I had 3, after a few minutes with her in bed it just disappeared.

Enough is enough like when a mullet gets eaten by a snook. But I am a trout. You got 3 choices in life you either climb a lamp or go to the county fair in slippers.

The mosquitos have gotten to my head.
