

Liz Morton

BIOGRAPHICAL

Liz Morton is an award-winning abstract painter based on the Crystal Coast of North Carolina. Her paintings are featured in gallery exhibitions and in both private and corporate collections worldwide.

Liz's interest in art began early, painting and drawing at her grandmother's side. Despite her parents' initial concerns about Liz following an art life, she chose the path. Financing her art education independently led to a successful career in cybersecurity, enabling her to travel extensively and fund her artistic endeavors. In 2015, she started exhibiting her work in the Washington, DC metropolitan area, and in 2020, she relocated to the Crystal Coast of North Carolina to focus on painting full-time.

Each piece aims to engage viewers with abstract expression through nature and imagination, using color and texture. Her artistic style features movement and fluidity, suggesting thematic continuity and providing a refreshing appeal. She remains committed to her career as an artist, navigating both challenges and successes.

Liz is represented by Impressions Art Gallery (MHC), Carolina Artist Gallery (MHC) and is a Member of the Women's Caucus for Art, Member of the Society of Layerists in Multi-Media, the Wilmington Artist Association, and the Arts Council of Carteret County

"Liz's paintings impart a sense of universality and introspection, suggesting emotional states or states of being rather than concrete narratives."
