In many cultures, women are celebrated for bringing forth and nurturing life. I believe it is this devotion that elevates our human place in the natural world and ignites our more complex creative pursuits.

It is for this reason that I incorporate portraits of women in my explorations of nature, combining symbolism and legends across species to illustrate narratives born of reverence and joy – for the natural beauty that we all possess, and our interconnectedness to the larger world of which we are a part.

Inspiration:

Walk with the medicine women, mystics, artists, creatives, and storytellers. The intellects, the stargazers. Walk with women whose mission is to heal herself and Mother Earth. Walk with women who care about things like kindness, integrity, compassion, and expansion. Walk with women who are breaking generational curses and shifting ancestral karma. Walk with women who get it and get you.
